

As an Indiana citizen and attorney, I am strongly opposed to the effort by Consumer Bankers Association (ill named, it seems) to weaken Indiana's privacy laws with respect to the "do not call" lists they are challenging. Please support the current law which helps to protect citizens from being disturbed in their own homes by unwanted telemarketing calls. Thank you. Kaisa Schafer, Attorney at Law